

ANDROSCOGGIN LAND TRUST

Conservation Excellence

Stakeholder Notification/Public Notice

The land trust accreditation program recognizes land conservation organizations that meet national quality standards for protecting important natural places and working lands forever. Androscoggin Land Trust is pleased to announce it is applying for renewal of accreditation. A public comment period is now open.

The Land Trust Accreditation Commission, an independent program of the Land Trust Alliance, conducts an extensive review of each applicant's policies and programs. Our mission is to Protect, through land conservation and stewardship, the important natural areas, traditional landscapes, and outdoor experience in the Androscoggin River watershed. Land trust accreditation is a mark of distinction, showing that ALT meets high standards for land conservation and upholding our mission.

The Commission invites public input and accepts signed, written comments on pending applications. Comments must relate to how Androscoggin Land Trust complies with national quality standards. These standards address the ethical and technical operation of a land trust. For the full list of standards see <http://www.landtrustaccreditation.org/help-and-resources/indicator-practices>.

To learn more about the accreditation program and to submit a comment, visit www.landtrustaccreditation.org, or email your comment to info@landtrustaccreditation.org. Comments may also be mailed to the Land Trust Accreditation Commission, Attn: Public Comments, 36 Phila Street, Suite 2, Saratoga Springs, NY 12866.

Comments on Androscoggin Land Trust's application will be most useful by February 5, 2024. Questions or comments submitted in writing to info@androscogginlandtrust.org or PO Box 3145 Auburn, ME 04212.

Sincerely,

Justin LaFontaine
Board President
